11. [] LIAISON Called Ira Goldman, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to tell him that my research for the regulation or statute which forces corporate management to reveal whether the company has any CIA officers on its payroll has met with only partial success. (The issue was raised during Don Gregg's, PCS/LOC, orientation briefing last Friday.) I told Mr. Goldman that I had tentatively identified section 102 of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act; but would get back to him next week. He appreciated the call.

12. [] LIAISON Met with Ed Levine and David Bushong, both on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and reviewed with them our comments on their most recent version of the Select Committee's report on Shaba and they promised to provide us the final rewrite sometime tomorrow. The report has been considerably improved over its earlier versions as a result of the discussions between the staffs and the provisioning of further information to fill in gaps and/or fortify the information previously supplied.

13. [] LIAISON Talked to Kirk O'Donnell, in the Office of the Speaker of the House Thomas P. O'Neill (D., Mass.), to take up the offer we had been making for some time now to provide substantive intelligence briefings to the Speaker and/or Democratic leadership. The briefing is requested for tomorrow morning at 9:15 a.m. and is to cover the question of any buildup of North Koreans on the 38th parallel. Ultimately, arrangements were made for Brigadier General Thomas S. Pinckney, ISA/DOD, to provide the briefing. I explained that the General had conducted a number of such briefings on the Hill and I assumed that the Speaker wanted to hear it first hand what he had said. This made sense to O'Donnell. I told him that he could be assured that General Pinckney would be reflecting the Director's assessment of the situation and that if there was a need for any assurances on that point I would be happy to accompany General Pinckney and O'Donnell suggested that I do so.

I learned from General Edgar Chavarrie, OSD/Legislative Affairs, that in addition to General Pinckney's briefing of the Staff Directors of the eight principal committees, DIA provided an expanded briefing to House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staffers at the request of Dick Giza, on the Committee staff.

17. [REDACTED] LIAISON Following a call from Tom White and my call to the Watch Office, I called Mike O'Neil, Chief Counsel, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, at home and informed him that we had no record of any security clearances on [REDACTED] staff assistant to Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill (D., Mass.). Mike O'Neil had earlier received a call from the Speaker's Office asking that Hymel's clearances be checked since he was planning to accompany the Speaker to the briefing on North Korea tomorrow morning. I told O'Neil that Mr. Lyle Miller would be handling the briefing and would call him later on.
